Egyptian Gods. Ancient Egypt had more than 40 false gods, although none are mentioned by name in the Bible. They included Re, creator sun god; Isis, goddess of magic; Osiris, lord of the afterlife; Thoth, god of wisdom and the moon; and Horus, god of the sun. Oddly, the Hebrews were not tempted by these gods during their 400+ years of captivity in Egypt.

I think "false gods" in our world today is thinking there is security in anything else other than our Lord Jesus Christ. Some examples are thinking there is security in money, possessions, insurance policies, stocks, bonds, other people. It's hard to let go of these things, but only when we do, we find that we are truly free in Christ.

A false god is, in some monotheistic religious denominations, the deities of pagan religions – as well as other competing entities or objects to which particular importance is attributed. Conversely, polytheistic pagans may regard the gods of various monotheistic religions as "false gods" because they do not believe that any real deity possesses the properties ascribed by monotheists to their sole deity.
