Greed in Politics is No Surprise. It comes as no surprise then, that greed is present in politics. Because greed, in varying degrees, is present in every person ' s heart, and must there be personally combatted, the most difficult question of government is thus how to restrain greed in politics. To this end, the founders of our peculiar American government proposed a Constitution that, if adhered to, would present the most effective vehicle, conceived by man, to restrain greed in politics.
